The correct answer is:

C. Prediction

In the end Holly says: “I cannot wait to see what happens next”. What do you think will happen in season 5?

D. Screen limits

Mr. Hobbie sets up screen limits for Heather. Do you think that is right or wrong? Explain why.

E. Group discussions

1. Cut out the cards.
2. Put them upside down on your desk.
3. Take turns to pick a card.
4. The one who picks the card starts the discussion by answering the question or agreeing/disagreeing to the statement and then giving her/his opinion. Then the others add to the discussion.
5. Ask each other questions and try to keep the discussion going.
6. Make sure you listen to your friends and include everybody in the discussion.

What episode did you like best in this season and why?	How would you describe Holly's and Amy's friendship?	If you could spend a day in Collinsville. What would that day look like?
Why do you think parents put screen limits on their children's screens?	How much time do you think is okay to be in front of a screen per day? Explain why.	Do you have any rules about screen time at home? If you do, what are they?
Mental illness came up several times in this season: Amy's anxiety and Justin's bipolar disorder. If one of your friends were feeling anxious or mentally unwell, what could you do to help or support them?	What do you think about the type of music Holly writes and sings? What music do you like to listen to?	Holly's dream is to work with music and in this season she got to do that. What is your dream?
What would the pros and cons be, if you were a superstar like Justin?	If you had access to a private jet like Justin and could go anywhere in the world. Where would you go and why?	Robbie and Lyla got engaged at a young age. What do you think about that?
Robbie is the CEO of his own company. If you started your own company, what kind of company would that be?	Holly writes music, Amy loves science, Heather dances and Robbie makes jam. What do you like to do in your spare time? Why?	What are the similarities and what are the differences between Holly's life in Collinsville and your life?
