

Sånger med TAKK

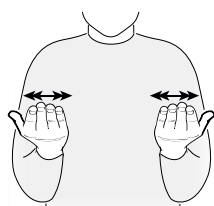

An illustration featuring two hands, one on the left and one on the right, reaching out towards each other. The hands are rendered in a light, textured yellowish-brown color. The background is a vibrant, textured red. Overlaid on the red background is the text 'Sånger med TAKK' in a white, hand-drawn, sans-serif font. The word 'Sånger' is at the top, 'med' is in the middle, and 'TAKK' is at the bottom, all in a slightly irregular, artistic style.

Tvätta händerna

Vad har du gjort sen sist du tvättade händerna?

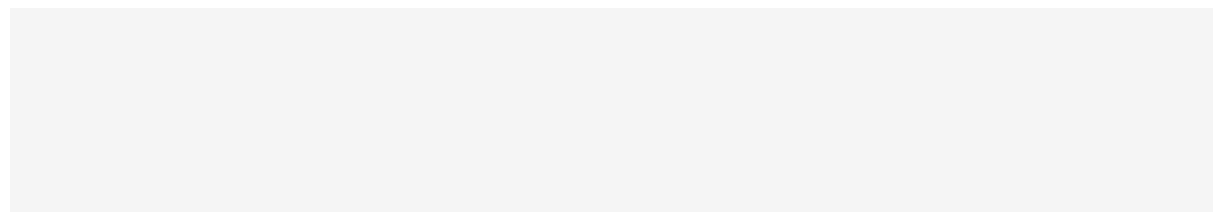

UR

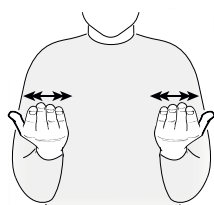

Vad har vi gjort sen sist vi tvätta händerna?

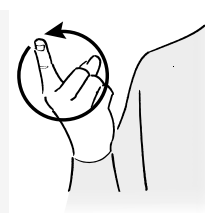

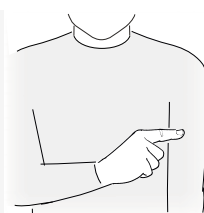

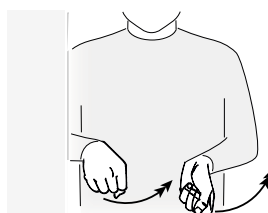

Vi letade efter mask men ramlade pladask

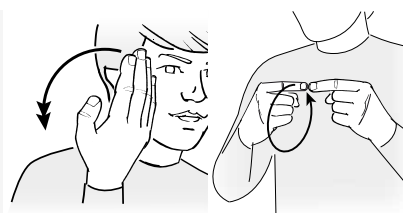

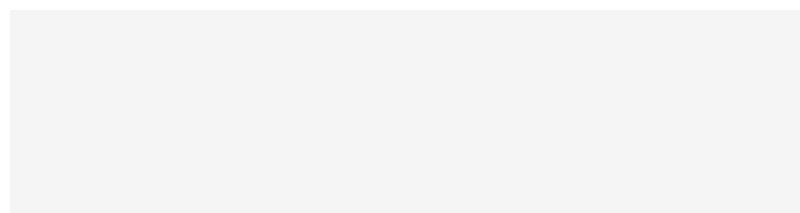

Sånt händer va

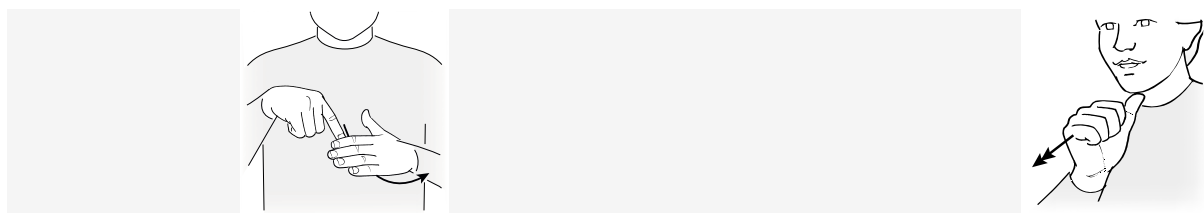

Vad har vi gjort sen sist vi tvätta händerna?

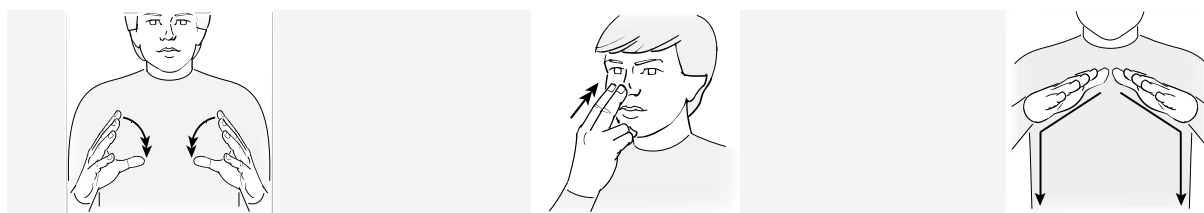

Vi grävde en grop, stoppade armen ner i hålet

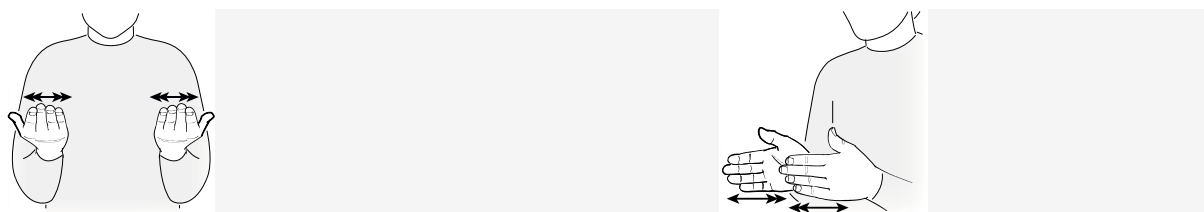

Där låg det slime, det hade nog stått sen förra året

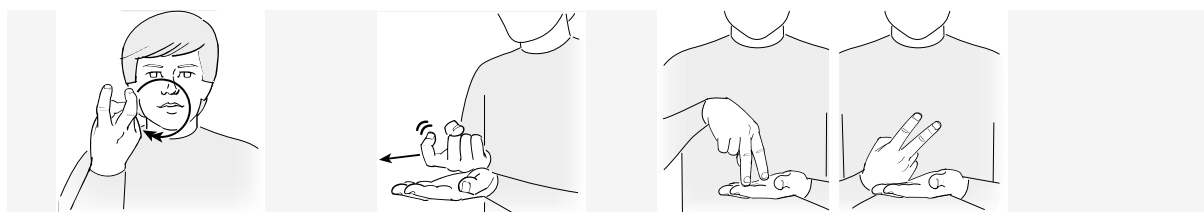

Tog med det in, med slime kan man göra bästa buset

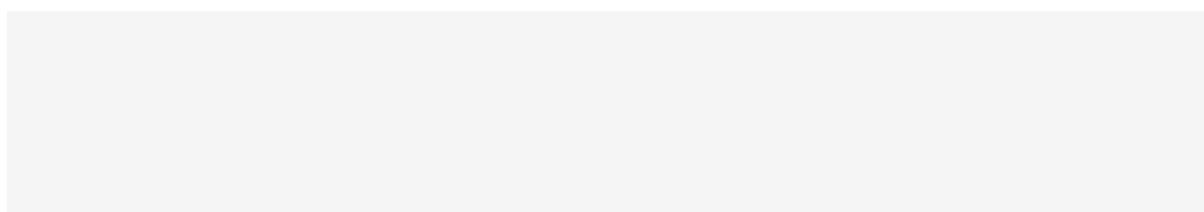

Så kladdigt och segt, det luktade skumt i hela huset

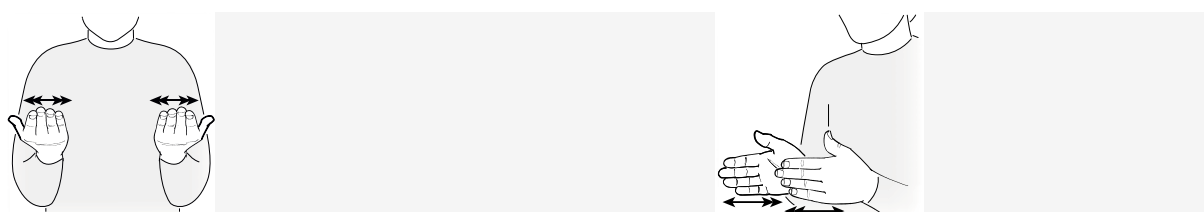

Vad har vi gjort sen sist vi tvätta händerna?

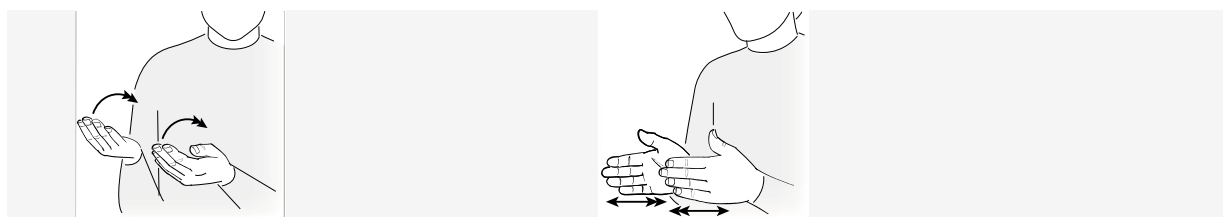

Vi letade efter mask men ramlade pladask

Sånt händer va

Vad har vi gjort sen sist vi tvätta händerna?

Nu längtar jag efter att tvätta händerna.
